

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 1, 2015 - Bend, Oregon: Bend Heating & Sheet Metal, Inc. earned the honor of being awarded the Green Building Sub Contractor of the Year award for 2014 from the Central Oregon Builders Association (COBA).

As the oldest and one of the top HVAC companies in Central Oregon, Bend Heating has contributed in many ways to COBA and its members over the years. Some of these contributions include:

- Offering ongoing continuing education classes for COBA members on Ductless Heat Pump Systems, Selling and Customer Service.
- Ductless Heat Pump educational classes during COBA's NW Green Bis Expo
- Installation of high efficiency Ductless Heat Pumps in "NetZero" construction projects.

Andy High, Vice President of Government Affairs for COBA says "Randall Marchington and Wade Kincaid from Bend Heating have played a key role in developing and delivering educational classes that are interesting, enjoyable and informative for COBA members. We value their contributions and they certainly deserve this award."

Scott Zettle, President of Bend Heating added "We have been a long standing member of COBA and we are honored to be recognized for our contributions to Green Building. We are dedicated to sharing our expertise and knowledge with all COBA members and the community at large.
